

Jan. 16, 1994
Bodhi Gaya

Dearest Master,

Satsang deepens in beauty in this place of Buddha immanation and your sublime Grace.

A heavy, two day rain collapsed our satsang list, but since we have a smaller crowd than had been expected (still 100-150 people daily), we ~~are~~ ^{are} able to take shelter in the International Meditation Center. It is a nice room and very appropriate for satsang. Everyone was quite calm at all the changes - This Peace reveals ITSELF in all circumstances.

We are making preparations for satsang at Samath. A coach has been kind for 30 people. The rest will travel from here and from Lucknow by train. A few people from America will also meet us there.

We have fixed the tourist bungalow in Sarnath as well as two small hotels on Assi Ghat in Varanasi. We leave here on Jan. 22. We had planned to leave on 20th but by staying later, we can make satsang available to those who are finishing Christopher's and Andrew's courses.

Dearest Master, The Victory is the Peace!

Deepest love and eternal gratitude -
Your ganga -