Beloved Papaji,

I send you eternal love - abiding in ONE HEART. Phenomena may appear or disappear; one thing may be said to one person, the opposite to another; night may become day, and day night - what can it all matter when eternal love is revealed to be WHO ONE IS.

You have pointed this out to me. You have opened my mind to revelations that cannot be measured or spoken by any mind - by anyone.

Someone asked me if I am fully realized. I told them: NO. I (True I, endless I, WHO I AM) is endlessly realized. Whoever reports a limit denies the TRUTH OF ENDLESSNESS. Sweet endlessness, including all form and all formlessness; existence and non existence; all resolution and all contradiction; one, many and none; nothing and more!

Endlessly, endlessly I AM -

Calling ITSELF - your ganga
